All of our wines are supplied by The House of Townend, who are an independent, family run Wine Merchant established in 1906. For four generations they have built direct relationships with some of the finest wine producers in the world. Their buying emphasis lies firmly with the smaller, quality led, and often family owned, wine estates and domains who possess like-minded philosophies.

Albariño, Alba Vega Rias Baixas, Spain

A new project wine between local growers in Galicia and Rioja Vega. Whilst the perfect garden wine (when the sun comes out) this is also a wonderful alternative to the likes of Sancerre or Chablis if you just want to try a high class, complex and fruit-driven crisp white.

Chardonnay, Pitchfork – South East, Australia

A fresh, unoaked Chardonnay offering incredible value for money. A world away from the over-oaked, buttery fruit-bombs of 15 years ago!

Malbec, Gouguenheim Mendoza, Argentina

Born in Argentina to French parents, Patricio Gouguenheim's love for wine started at the age of 7 when he was given a little bit of wine (mixed with sparkling water!) with every meal. No doubt this was a catalyst for him entering the world of wine later on in life. It was in 2002, when Argentina went into a big economic crash and GDP collapsed that he decided to enter the wine market (as everyone else was leaving...). He found a very old winery located in the Uco Valley, with a lot of small tanks ideal for the production of high quality wines, and that was the start of his venture in this wonderful, crazy business!

Rioja Crianza, Rioja Vega Rioja, Spain

Initially started as the dream of one man, Don Felipe Ugalde in 1882, this winery has seen ongoing growth and development over the years. Don's aim was simple: to be one of the countries most prestigious Bodega's. The estate pre-dates the assigned 'Rioja' region, and has therefore been allowed the keep 'Rioja' in their name. Today it is owned by the group Principe de Viana who acquired it in 1983 providing investment in new equipment, staff and in 2001 a brand new winery.

Valpolicella Classico, Giuseppe Lonardi Veneto, Italy

Lonardi are a great family producer with a history of making very approachable and subtle wines. Giuseppe Lonardi now owns around 7 hectares of vines and produces traditional, elegant wines in Valpolicella, obtained by maintaining traditional methods yet adopting up-to-date vinification and viticultural techniques.
